Dedication

She first came to us in September of 1954 as a physical education teacher. She left us in June of 1957 to teach at Portville Central School, after which, she continued her education and came back to Richburg in 1967 as the School Guidance Counselor.

As Guidance Director she is never too busy to listen to students who need a helping hand.

And so we, The Quill Staff of 1972, wish to dedicate this yearbook to the one who has helped us and encouraged us through the years, Mrs. Elizabeth Lee.

Foreword

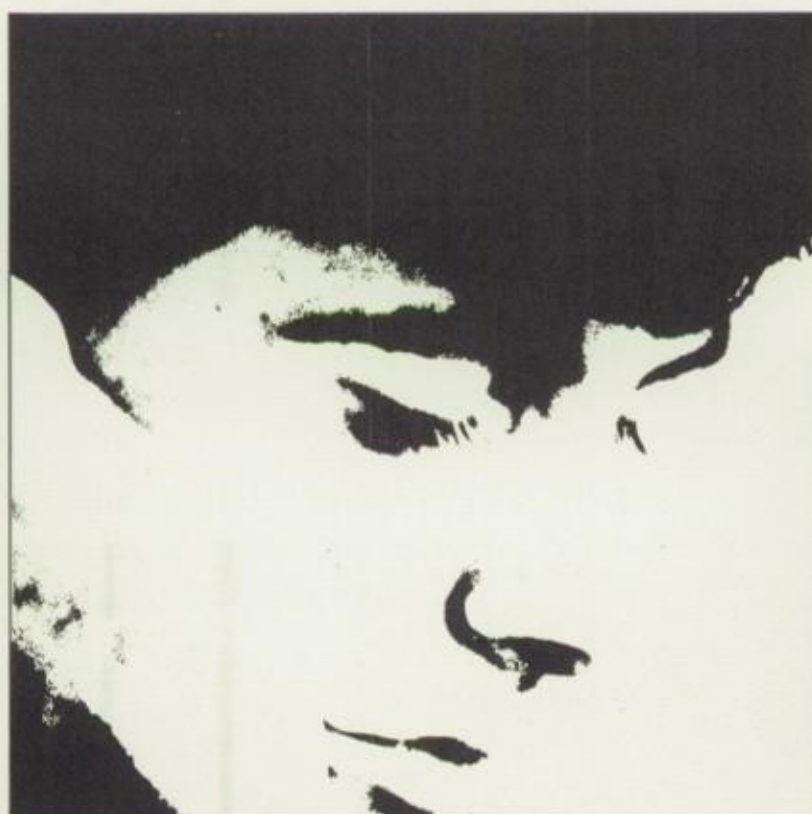

OFFICERS: L. Maxson, Lit. ed., K. Webster, Business mgr., P. Olson, Ed., P. Stout, Asst. ed., D. Stonemetz, Sales Mgr., J. Mullen, Sports Ed.

To the Class of 1972:

I wonder if your outlook on life will be the same in 1992 as it is when you read this in 1972. I hope that each of you has found a way to enrich your philosophy of life.

If you have succeeded in your vocational endeavor, I compliment you on your success. If you have not yet achieved success, I urge you to work harder towards your goal.

Remember each of us who has attempted to help you in the past. If you need help, at anytime in the future, please feel free to call, write or to come and visit the school.

Sincerely yours,

Bruce T. Forness

THE SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Well, now the days are ending,
And soon we will be gone,
But we hope the memory
Of each of us lives on.

At first there came our Freshman year,
The beginning of the end.
We soon began to know each other
Each had his own new friend.

Our main concern was money--
"What a responsibility!"
For the Class of '72
We thought this an IMPOSSIBILITY!

The Sophomore year rolled in;
Unnoticed it took effect.
Then we found this responsibility
Was not what we'd expect.

Our Junior year came through with noise,
Our work had just begun
But intelligence helped, because we found
Behind the work was fun.

We had a car-wash, a Junior play,
Even a paper drive.
Then working at the fair each day
For money we did strive.

We have it made now;
The battle is won.
Now we look forward
To Washington.

The road of the past
Has faded away.
We remember the good times
But we live for today.

May the sands of time
Bring prosperity
To the upcoming class
Of '73.

Class Prophecy

The past 100 years have brought us to wonder where the Class of 1972 is residing. We will soon find out how well they have prospered and study their strange behavior patterns.

As we enter Heaven, we see ahead of us a pearly gate that seems to be unguarded. Soon we see Mark Mucha and Barb Bartoo walking towards us. They apologize for their tardiness but they were out late last night. We then climb up on Cloud 9 and see there is a wedding taking place. The couple is Tom Dey and Marsha Harris. We asked around and found out that they enjoyed their wedding so much 70 years ago, they decided to do it all over again. We can hardly hear Kerry Putnam, the preacher, talking for there is a loud sound down below. As we look down on the gold shimmering street, we see Sherry Speta revving her motor impatiently. She just loves receptions. Robin Little catches the bridal bouquet but she says that it gets to be an everyday thing. When we leave we see a small gas station called the Holy Mobil. Three mechanics, Dave Robinson, Carl Kuhn, and Floyd Sisson are fixing a Plymouth with broken wings thanks to Gary Faulkner's Chevy. Then as we walk on we see that there is a party on Cloud 10. Even though it is only 9:30 Gene Harris is leaving but he gives Pam Stout one last chase around the cloud. In the corner we see Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Jones. Bruce is trying to become a basketball star while Lene', still in her cheerleading uniform, cheers on. Close by we see Kathy Webster and Pam Olson digging through a box of old cheerleading uniforms. Pam is still trying to find one to fit her.

In the middle of the cloud we see Candy Dickerson, Judy Emerson, and Debbie Stonemetz discussing the latest news around Heaven. They are loudly interrupted by Niki McLaughlin and Diane Clemons arguing over folk and hard rock music. All eyes are raised towards the sky when streaks of color splash from one horizon to another. We are told this is Sandy Bennett and Marvin Britts riding on their gold-winged paint brush. When the excitement subsides we hear Diane Benson, Tess Paxhia, and Su Locke discussing college. They are such go-getters that they say they want higher education.

When we leave the party on Cloud 10 we run into Dan Cass. We understand he does wonders at track meets with his winged feet. At the church we see Lisa Maxson, Cathie Neu, and Sharon Chapman. They are still discussing wedding plans and are also looking for their respective husbands.

When we reach the golden ladder that leads to Earth we see Joel Mullen and Craig Smith. They have tried so hard to think of something mean and cruel to do to us but they say angelic minds can do no evil. We descend down the ladder shaking our heads saying only to ourselves "How did they ever get there??"

Retirements

Mrs. Mary McCaffrey has spent six of her twenty years of teaching at Richburg. She was formerly at Limestone before transferring to Richburg to teach the Third Grade.

All those students who had her will remember her for her compassion and wisdom in helping other students as well as faculty.

We wish her many years of happiness in her retirement.

Mrs. Marion Jennings has been with us at R.C.S. for twenty-five years as a teacher of the first grade. She was a graduate of Geneseo State University and taught one year in Bolivar before coming to Richburg.

She will be remembered for her helpful and cheerful nature during her twenty-five years of serving our school and its students.

We wish her much happiness in her retirement years.

In Memoriam

William McElory was an active member in the community as well as in school.

He served on the School Board from July 1953 to January 1959.

He also was councilman of the Richburg Town Board. Mr. McElroy served as a Sergeant in the Army-Air Corp during World War II. He was Past Master of the Masons and an active member of the Bolivar Methodist Church where he served on the Music committee.

Mr. McElroy will be remembered by all those who came in contact with him. Memories will be cherished concerning his good humor, pleasing personality, and kindness to all. His passing has left a vacant place in the hearts of all who knew and loved Him.
